Formafantasma (Simone Farresin, Vicenza 1981 and Andrea Trimarchi, Taormina, 1983) are a duo of designers based in Amsterdam, who analyze the ecological and political responsibilities of their discipline. Their works are included in the collections of important museums, including MoMA, Stedelijk and Serpentine Galleries. Already in 2011, the New York Times listed them among the most influential designers of the new generation. In 2020 they won the Dezeen Designer of the Year Award. In 2021 they received the award in the same category of the magazine Wallpaper. The conference will be an open conversation.

Rethinking the Environmental Connectedness
